Day 5: Champassak – 4000 islands (B/-/-)

After breakfast, we cross the Mekong on an antique ferry to the road 13 that goes down to the 4,000 islands. We visit the temple of Hat Sai Khoune perched on the hills, which offers a sublime panorama of the surrounding islands. Down to the temple, we will get on board to enjoy a slow cruise on the Mekong, in-between the little and big islands (about one-and-a-half-hour cruise) where you can see magnificent villages in the heart of the Laotian countryside. On Done Khone Island, you will visit the remains of French colonization, the waterfalls of Li Phi and get the chance to see sight the Irrawaddy dolphins, endangered species.

Overnight on Done Khone ★★ - bungalow with Mekong view

Day 6: 4000 islands - Paksé (B/-/-)

We take a cruise to get to Bane Nakasang, on the banks of the Mekong. The car is waiting here. We will travel close to the border to Cambodia, where we will admire the South-east Asian Niagara: Khone Phapheng waterfall. Going back to Pakse, we stop at the Elephant Village, where a trekking elephant in the XePiang Natural Park is planned (1:30). Back in Pakse at sunset.
